7. Ongoing Business

A. Summer Reading Program update

Jenn Thorsen reported that most of the Summer Reading activities are in place. She has completed a budget for the program. She has submitted a grant request to the OCCF for $5,000 to fund the program. She should know the outcome of this request by the middle of May.

B. New Building Warranty Items update.

Tom reported that he has been in touch with the contractor and the architect about the items that need to be addressed in the building before the warranties run out. He will continue to be in contact with them. Jennifer has fixed the soap dispenser problems in the bathrooms. Tom reported that the $3,000 settlement check from Nixon carpet should be coming soon.

C. Integrated Library System update

Jennifer reported on the possibility of acquiring the Apollo system for our circulation system. It has many features that we do not have with our current system, and is less expensive. she has conferred with area libraries who have adopted it, and they are very happy with it.

8. New Business

A. Budget 2017-2018

Tom will have this ready for the May meeting.

B. Technology status update

see Director's report

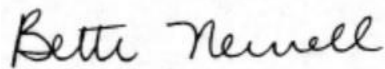

C. Committee assignments

Committee assignments remain the same, with the aforementioned addition to the financial committee of Lyndsey Eccles. The complete list of assignments is contained in the August 29, 2016 minutes.
